This 1930's Queenslander has loads of character and potential. The property has great street appeal and original features such as VJ walls, high ceilings and polished timber floors inside. There are three bedrooms, a lounge room, kitchen and bathroom upstairs and a laundry downstairs.

The property is in need of renovations and will be a great asset for any property portfolio or a lovely home to live in once all the updates are complete. It is in a very handy location within walking distance to Riverlink Shopping Centre and the Ipswich CBD as well as access to a range of local shops and family friendly parks. There is a regular bus service making access to shops and rail easy and it is a short walk to local schools.

The property is flood free and has a nice sized 506m2 yard with the potential to build a garage and landscape to suit your needs. There is under house car accommodation.
