SOLD BY JUNE FRANK

This immaculate home has many features including security screens and doors as well as remotes for the garage providing a good sense of safety and security in a rapidly growing master planned community.

Beautifully presented with three bedrooms, two bathrooms and double lock up garage located in a rapidly growing well planned community. There is a split system air-conditioning to the open plan living areas as well as the main bedroom making it a breeze through the summer heat and keep you cosy in winter.

The kitchen is very modern and efficient with ample storage and work space and includes a dishwasher. The main living dining area is open planned and leads out through the rear sliding glass doors to a lovely north facing deck, perfect to enjoy a morning cup of tea. The generously sized main bedroom has an ensuite and has great wardrobe space.

The double garage has fantastic storage and access to the back yard. The garage floor has been finished with an epoxy coating making it a versatile space and easy to clean.

This home would suit families, retirees, professionals/service people and investors
