

6 Whitehill Road, Newtown

Black and White – Delight

Wow! This smart white paint scheme with eye catching black trim is a knock out on Whitehill Road. Set in highly sought after Newtown this newly renovated period home is great buying. Upgrades include a new roof, rewiring, internal and external paint in on-trend colours. New main bathroom which includes an upstairs laundry, original remaining downstairs, large ensuite added to main bedroom accessed through French doors. New kitchen is stunning and practical with great bench space and storage large enough to eat-in or set up dining in the adjoining back breakfast room. Light and airy living spaces are provided in an open plan space to the front of the home. Restumping has provided a great workshop or storage area. A huge benefit of a corner position is providing side street access to the shed, back yard and car accommodation. A breezy private, cool, entertainment area overlooks a cottage garden and is perfect for a family barbeque or lazy read. Walk to rail, school – coffee shop on the corner. Set on 723m2 block A special home indeed with everything you would want!
